Overview Specification

Combining the very best level of audio clarity with an exceptional comfort, the Philips Stereo Over Ear Headphones are great for transcription. With an over ear design and spongy covering, these headphones do not apply pressure to the inside or outside of your ear. The head band is adjustable to your requirements making these the perfect product no matter what size your head is. Featuring a 1/8 inch jack, this is perfect for use in almost all different headphone ports, making this suitable for a range of different items.
